The Iowa State Bar Association's Young Lawyers Division Professional Development Committee will present its annual "Nuts & Bolts Seminar" in Des Moines on October 4, 2006 and in Cedar Rapids on October 6, 2006. This seminar is primarily designed for "new" attorneys; however, any attorney is invited to attend. For those attorneys admitted to practice for less than two years, the seminar is free. The seminar is available at a low cost for more "seasoned" attorneys. The seminar starts with a general session on the Legal Community and Ethics before breaking into litigation and transactional tracks. Litigation track topics include: Discovery; Juvenile Law; Cross Examination/Trial Technique; and Case & Client Evaluation. Transactional track topics include: Business Formation Entity, Selection, Sale/Purchase; Basic Bankruptcy; Nonprofit Corporations; Real Estate; and the Probate Process. New to the seminar this year, is a panel discussion for new lawyers at the end of the day, with a panel of attorneys from various types of practice. For more information or a registration form, please call (515) 243-3179.

CLE Speaker Suggestions Needed

Due to the success of I.O.W.A.'s telephone CLE over lunch, the Board of Directors of I.O.W.A. would like to hold similar CLEs more frequently. The Board would like suggestions for speakers and topics. The speaker does not have to be a licensed attorney if the topic has sufficient relation to the law. Please send suggestions for speakers and/or topics to any Board member.
